

Combustion Presentation - June 22, 2010

Course Outline:

Lakeside Process Controls is pleased to offer In Situ Combustion Analyzer Best Practices –Including new technology, better performance, easier maintenance, How to conduct a combustion audit, and evolution of Installed base to New Units.

Date: Tuesday, June 22, 2010

Time: 8:30AM - 12:00PM

Cost: Free

Location: Lakeside Process Controls Ltd.
5250 Orbitor Dr.
Mississauga, On.,
L4W 5G7

Topics:

- How to service and rebuild the O2 sensors from Rosemount
- How to get diagnostic information on the probe and its expected life
- Expected service intervals and setting up service contracts
- Problem solving for tough applications
- How to show the ROI

Lunch provided

Who Should Attend:

Anyone working in the process industry who wishes to profit by adopting new business practices in specifying, applying or maintaining measurement instrumentation.

Typical attendees include:

- Boiler Personnel
- Project Managers
- Process Engineers
- Instrument Engineers/Techs
- Application Engineers
- Anyone involved with the installation, selection or maintenance of combustion equipment

 LAKESIDE

To register for this course please provide your name, company, address, phone and email to Nadra Mark at 905-629-9340 or by email at nadra.mark@lakesidecontrols.com by June 15